LIMBO

by Declan Feenan

Caroline Williamson gives a "masterclass in subtlety and simplicity" as a young Catholic girl in this compelling tale from the new generation of Northern Irish writers.

Following critical acclaim at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival and York Theatre Royal, LIMBO transfers to the Arcola Theatre for a special limited run.

LIMBO is the tender and compelling story of a young girl's relationship with an older man. Claire gives her confession from the edge of Camlough Lake. She speaks of her life in Newry and her job in the factory with the girls. She speaks of her first love. She speaks of a relationship with a man twice her age. As the darkness of the lake calls out to her, she will do anything to find her peace.

Starring Caroline Williamson

Directed by Dan Sherer

Produced by Real Circumstance with York Theatre Royal and Strawberry Vale Productions

“With Dan Sherer's solemn yet lyrical staging and Caroline Williamson's understated, wounded performance...LIMBO keeps you silent until the final, shiver-inducing word”
- The Guardian, Pick of the Day

“An outstanding performance...one of Edinburgh's most gripping hours”
- British Theatre Guide ****

“Her soulful performance surely will move you”
-York Evening Press
